TWO CENTS

DEATH IN WAKE OF ELECTRICAL STORM AT WASHINGTON

WORKMEN KILLED BY A LIVE WIRE

Three Washington Men Have Their Lives Snuffed Out When They Stumble Over Wire Carrying 25,000 Volts of Electricity

LIGHTNING LOOSENS WIRE

Details Meagre, But It Is Believed They Were Caught In The Terrible Electric Storm Which Swept Over The County Seat Last Night

When three men stumbled into live wires, carrying 25,000 volts of electricity which had been struck and knocked to the ground during the terrific electric storm which swept over Washington last night, following a day of intense heat, they were electrocuted.

THE DEAD

Frank Buchanan, aged 60, of Hayes avenue.

Pete Zucci, aged 40, of Gordon addition.

Joe Zucci, aged 28, of Gordon addition.

Deputy Coroner A. Blaine Day was notified and took charge of the bodies.

Details of the fatalities are meagre, but it is presumed that the men were caught in the storm and were making their way home during the rainstorm. Not knowing that the high tension wire, which runs into the Gordon valley to furnish power for various industries, had been torn down by lightning presumably, they walked into the live wires.

Identification of Buchanan had been positively made early this morning, and while the other two men were believed to be the Zucci Brothers, according to employees of the Jessop plant, this fact was not certain.

Two of the bodies were together, while that of the third man was about 12 feet away. All three were carrying lanterns.

All three are thought to have been employed at the Hazel No. 2 glass factory or gas plant in connection with it and that they were on their way to work when they were caught in the terrific storm. Whether they stumbled into the live wires during the driving rain or whether the wires were knocked down upon them as they stumbled along through the downpour, is conjecture.

Mr. Wilson, an electrical engineer at the Jessop Steel company plant, discovered the bodies about 11 o'clock.

It was not until nearly 1 o'clock this morning that the bodies so besmeared with mud that their features could hardly be recognized, were finally recovered. It was necessary for the West Penn Power company to turn off the current of the high tension line before anyone could safely approach the remains of the trio.

AIR MAIL SERVICE TO POINTS WEST

The Air Mail service from Charleroi to the western states is fast becoming the popular method in which to send communications and parcels from this part of the county across the continent. In order that all Charleroi folk may thoroughly understand the manner in which to proceed to take advantage of this Twentieth century method, the following information came from the local postoffice this morning:

There is a plane leaving Cleveland, Ohio, for Charleroi, Pa., on the C. P. train, No. 7707, leaving Charleroi at 6:05 a. m., connects with the plane at Cleveland, while the Pittsburgh-Fairmont train, No. 7833, leaving Charleroi at 7:05 p. m., connects with the Charleroi plane. All communications and parcels should be marked in bold letters, "Air Mail."

There is a difference in the rate of postage between the Cleveland and Charleroi plane, the rate being considerably less on that of the Chicago plane. The following is an account of the new feature.

SEARCH BEING MADE FOR AN ITALIAN AVIATOR

Washington, August 23.—In airplanes, motor boats and kayaks, extensive searching parties are combing the ice-bound coast of Greenland today for trace of the missing Italian aviator, Lieutenant Locatelli, who has not been heard from since he plunged into a fog while accompanying the American world fliers from Iceland to Greenland Thursday afternoon.

Progress of the search was told in two official dispatches received by naval radio this morning from the cruisers Milwaukee and Richmond stationed in the North Atlantic.

The Richmond advised officials here that as soon as the fog rises it will have to proceed to Picton, Newfoundland, for re-fueling and leave the remaining cruiser to continue the hunt.

The Milwaukee reported that a "systematic search" was in progress from Frederikshavn where the American fliers landed to Frederikshavn, a hundred miles north on the east coast of Greenland.

PRINCE SAILS BEFORE DAWN TO AVOID SEEING

Southampton, August 23.—While hundreds of Americans mingled with a great crowd that gathered here today to bid him bon voyage, the Prince of Wales eluded all the sight-seers and unobtrusively boarded the Borealis before dawn this morning.

The prince's trip to America has developed such a social clamor which ranged from the demonstrations of good will on the part of Britshers, who have a very deep affection for him, to the ridiculous antics of numerous downers who hope he will return a measure of this affection to their daughters that he was forced to take extreme means to avoid publicity as to his get-away.

He stayed part of the night at the home of Lord and Lady Louis Mount Batten at Cowes and before daylight took a launch, accompanied by his brother, Prince George, for the Berengaria.

Violate Liquor Laws Alleged Two Are Held

Philip Monte and Mike Rosalie, proprietors of a pool room in the basement of Hotel Main, Monongahela, were arrested before 11 a. m. of the city name charged with violating the liquor laws. The mayor, after hearing the evidence, held the accused for court under $500 bail each.

Chief of Police S. S. Burnworth, with other officers, have been keeping "tab" on the pool room for some time, and following information received from patrons of the place, the arrest of the proprietors of the pool room followed.

LOOKING FOR MISSING

M'KEES ROCKS MAN

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Oles, 369, Munson avenue, McKees Rocks, were in the borough yesterday afternoon conferring with Chief of Police James A. Murphy in an effort to ascertain the whereabouts of one Joe Prokopczak, aged 35 years, of McKees Rocks, who disappeared on May 30. Mr. Oles said the man came here for medical treatment, and was in Charleroi, it is thought, for a day or two. He had about $100 cash. The occupation of the man is that of coal miner, and any information leading to his whereabouts, or his fate, if dead, will be gratefully received by his wife and three children.

COMPANY D IS TO JOIN

Not to be outdone by any city or town in the country and also to comply with the general plan of observance of Defense Day Monessen's military unit is rapidly forming its program for Friday, September 12, when it will be the official and patriotic duty to defend Monessen and community against an imaginary invasion.

Defense Day observance falls on the sixth anniversary of the battle of St. Mihiel. There are two objectives in the idea, patriotic and a national defense test. This will include all of the armed forces of the country, excluding perhaps a state or two, being the regular army, the reserve forces, and National Guard units.

As applied to Monessen, Company D of the 110th Infantry, must prepare and submit plans on how to call out this unit, how to mobilize it in an emergency, how to recruit the company up to a war-time basis; and lastly how to defend Monessen and surrounding territory in case of attack by an enemy. Officers and committees are working on this report now, which must be at regimental headquarters in Washington, Pa., by next Wednesday.

Monessen's military committee consists of Captain Paul D. Porter, Lieutenant Norman Wolfe and Major D. C. Farquhar. The Citizens' committee is comprised of Mayor Carl Woodward, Louis N. Ely, John G. Parke, Pierce C. Johnson, C. L. Schuck and Frank G. Lane.

CONLIN FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY

The funeral services for Harry T. Conlin, who was fatally injured at the Cishocton Iron Works at Axtell, Tuesday noon, and who died on Wednesday at 12 o'clock without regaining consciousness, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the late home in Fourth Street extension, Washington Pike, in charge of Rev. Alfred Johnson, pastor of the First Christian church. Interment took place in the Monongahela cemetery.

Harry Conlin was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Conlin and was born in Monongahela, April 2, 1873. He had been a resident of that city all his life. He graduated from the public schools and Scott Academy and for years was engaged with his father in the brick manufacturing industry. Later he was engaged as ticket agent at the P. R. R. station, but for some time had been in the employ of the Coshocton Iron works. On November 21, 1912, he was married to Miss Cora Larimer, who with his aged father, two brothers, Charles and James Conlin, of Cleveland, O., and an adopted daughter, Florence Conlin, survive. He was a faithful member of the First Christian church of Monongahela.

MYSTERIOUS SIGNALS ARE REPEATED

Vancouver, B. C., August 23.—The mysterious signals—four sharp dashes—which were received at the Point Grey station at Victoria, have been repeated. They also were recorded at the Merchants Exchange station. Wireless engineers are unable to solve the mystery as they say no spark or continuous wave set could produce such sounds. Efforts to trace source of the messages have failed.

London, Aug. 23.—The powerful wireless set at home of Norman Edwards, again intercepted a strange message at 11:57 p. m. Friday (Greenwich meantime). The signal was in an irregular series of long dots—in alternate groups of four and five.

A 24 valve receiving set was used in catching the signals.

Boston, Aug. 23.—Theories about what is going on on the planet Mars are pure speculation say astronomers at Harvard University. Some believe there is no human life on the planet.

Local Society To Picnic At Shady Grove

The attendance at the meeting of Charleroi Circle No. 303, Protected Home Circle, held last night was satisfactory. The following members were taken into consideration.

As per announcement by the chairman of the picnic committee, Mrs. Frank Kline, those wishing to attend the annual P. H. C. picnic at Shady Grove on Wednesday, August 27, responded promptly to the inquiry. About 40 reservations being booked.

Two omnibuses will convey the picnickers to and from the grove. The assessment will be, adults, $1; children, 50 cents. This annual picnic amenity of the Protected Home Circle, which comprises some 10 or more Circles in the Uniontown district, was made possible through provision of Mrs. Maude Crockett Hobough, and it is looked forward to with avidity by the members of the order as one of the leading events of the season. The attendance on the date as herein mentioned, promises to be the equal, if not surpassing, any of the erstwhile occasions. Sports of all kinds have been provided, cash prizes to be awarded to the winners of the various events.

Members of the local Circle will have their numbers amplified by two large omnibus loads from the Monessen Circle, the concourse to leave promptly at 8:30 a. m., from the home of Mrs. Frank Kline. Apropos of the session of the Charleroi Circle last evening, a felicitous feature was the refreshments served by the social committee under the supervision of Miss Bessie Harkness, the newly elected Guardian.

The members of the Circle are not devoting solely, their efforts in the matter of picnics and social functions; the proposition of new members is being looked after.

Memorial services for the late A. C. McGueen, supreme president of the order, are being arranged for, to be held during the first week in the month of September.

Bentleyville Youth Is In Dying Condition Result Of Accident

John Dancak, age 16, son of John Dancak of Bentleyville is a patient in the Washington hospital with his skull fractured and his life hanging in the balance.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock Dancak, in company with Louis Nicoli, also 16 years old of Bentleyville, and William Kirch, age 15, likewise of Bentleyville were working along with a grading machine in the Charleroi-Lover road. A heavy bar on the machine, which was unexpectedly released, flew back and hit the boys over the head. Dancak received a terrific blow with the iron bar, which rendered him unconscious. Kirch, who was standing a short distance from Dancak, was struck on the right side of the face and severely cut. Nicoli was more fortunate than the other boys, but received a deep gash over his right eye.

Dr. A. F. Booth of Bentleyville was rushed to the scene of the accident, and after giving first aid, ordered the boys Nicoli and Kirch to their homes, and Dancak to the Washington hospital, where it was found he had received a fractured skull. He was taken to the institution in the ambulance of J. O. McDonough of Bentleyville.

PROGRESS IS MADE ON THE HIGHWAYS

LOOKING FOR ASSOCIATES OF MURDERED MAN

New York, August 23.—Search for two business associates of Aaron A. Graff, prominent radio manufacturer, whose dismembered body was found sealed in a crude home made crypt in the basement of a Greenwich Village house today, has been started.

One is John Lugosy, carpenter, who disappeared August 9, just eight days after Graff was reported missing. He is known to have shown a large roll of bills which links with the fact that Graff had $800 at the time he was last seen.

The second man is Charles Rass, original owner of the vat in which Graff's body was found. Rass quarreled with Graff shortly before the latter's disappearance.

Graff's absence has caused the police much bother. For a month they had attempted to trace him. Only the bungled job of his murderers in failing to seal the vault tightly led to finding of the body.

Police have long suspected the body was hidden in the basement of the Greenwich Village house. They have dug about in the rubbish but always overlooked the short steel box which stood partly pushed into the wall.

Complaints were made by business men close to the house about the smell from the basement. Shortly after Graff's disappearance, Lugosy who also acted as janitor, was notified to clean it up. He promised to do this and disappeared. The complaints had grown more insistent and yesterday police started a thorough search of the basement believing the odors came from a decomposed body. The rubbish yielded nothing and then they turned to the vault. An open peck in the bottom of the steel container and a broken place in the seam

THE TRIPLE LINK CHAMPS ARE TO PLAY CHARLEROI

Monessen canceling its game with the Charleroi Independents necessitated Manager D. Cleve Mathers securing a substitute, and he was fortunate in being enabled to secure the champions of the Triple Link league, the fast Finneyville team.

This club will probably give the locals a good argument. Beatty will pitch for Charleroi, and the contest is scheduled for 3:30 o'clock.

Mid-Summer Finds Many Projects Quite Well Under Way — The Canonsburg-Traut Road to Be Opened Today, Reported

SEVERAL NEW BRIDGES

List of Bridges Completed—Extensive Repairs Have Been Made to the Floors of Donora-Webster And Belle Vernon Bridges

The coming of midsummer finds the road building and bridge programs of the county commissioners well under way, with a number of important projects completed and others upon which work is progressing in a satisfactory manner. The following new road construction is finished: the Canonsburg-Venice road, a distance of 3.852 feet and the road will be opened to traffic today, the Avella-Manchester road a distance of 4.60 feet; the Gastonville-Elrama road, a distance of 5.625 feet; the McCane's Bridge-Meadowlands road, a distance of 5.280 feet.

The Derbo road, 6.340 feet, the Moffitt's Mill road, 6.242 feet, the Charleroi-Lover road, 7.922 feet, are all under construction and will be completed within a reasonable time. On the McMurray road, section No. 4, extending to the Allegheny county line, a small amount of work remains to be done incident to changing of location of a bridge.

The Hill Church-Eighty Four road, extending southwardly to the end of the brick road at Wyland, is being graded at the present time and on the Pike Run road, section No. 4, grading has been completed and the contractor will soon be actively at work on its further improvement.

On the Houston-McConnell's Mill road new curb is being placed in position and on the Short Creek road, between Sparta and Old Concord, the placing of telford base is about completed.

The following bridges have been completed: The Venice bridge, No. 6, over Miller's Run and the Arella bridge, No. 16, over Cross creek. The Crane bridge No. 27 over Chartiers creek, the West bridge, No. 15, over Pike run and the Gable bridge, No. 13, over Chartiers creek, will be completed about the first of September.

Extensive repairs have been made to the floors of the Donora-Webster and the Belle Vernon bridges on the Monongahela river.

The present season has been a busy one for the road and bridge departments of the county and as a result it will be seen that a great deal of work has been accomplished and many miles of new road added to the large mileage of improved highways that Washington county already possesses. With completion of the roads still under construction, several miles will be added to the sum total and the year 1924 will run well with other years in the building of new roads that are so much demanded by the people of the county.

SCOTT'S BODY IS TAKEN TO PITTSBURGH

The body of Clarence Scott, aged 30, who was drowned while swimming in the Monongahela river Thursday just before noon, was taken to Pittsburgh last night for burial, to the home of Fred Scott, a brother, who lives on the North Side. The deceased was employed as a stevedore at the West End wharf.

Fredericktown, Weiss is proprietor of a store in Centerville, and it is said has been a persistent as well as a successful one.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE.

One of the pastors of a Protestant church in Charlottesville complains of the lack of attendance on the part of church folk at union services being held at the various Protestant edifices. He said that the laity and congregations attend church when the services happen to be at "their church," which leads to the supposition that the union services are not as well attended as the preachers of the church would like.

As a matter of fact, during the past season, John and Mary, and their children would rather stay home Sunday nights, listening in, perhaps, to the radio, or galavanting around the country in their automobile. They appear to think that in going to church in the morning, they have fulfilled their religious obligations. As a further matter of fact if people should go to church as many as five times of a Sunday, they would be only fulfilling their duty to their Maker.

In this day and age how far short of the "glory of the Great Jehovah" does the christian fall? If he goes to church, and this is an incentive for better things of life, he must still be a seeker for righteousness to all that he should be in the judgment of the Man of Galilee. But if he be lax in his church duties, how can he expect to reach the summit of christian usefulness which the King of Kings demands that he should reach?

The clergy of today are doing all they can to evangelize the world from the thrall of sin. One of the greatest encouragements that they can receive, and to which they are entitled, is to see "all" or as nearly "all" as possible of the laity and congregation at divine services, thus showing that they are not only interested in their souls' salvation, but that they are anxious and willing to aid the minister in his great work of uplift.

The union services being held Sunday nights in the Protestant churches are for all the people; but the members and congregations of the various denominations should set the example of being there, irrespective of what church the meeting is held. Christianity is for all.

FARMS FOR ASKING.

We note by an Ohio newspaper that an Ohioan has offered to turn over, rent free, to any responsible farmer, any one of three good farms which he owns, providing the farmer will pay the taxes, assessments, and insurance on the property, keep in repair the necessary fences, and other pairs that will be compulsory in the proper conduct of the farm, and maintain the soil fertility.

One farm has 40 acres, another 50, and the third, 150 acres. The land, valuable, now lies idle, produces no income, does not pay the taxes. The farmer needs from the government none of the quack remedies that self-baked politicians suggest and advocate. What he needs, and what we need, is just simplified, economical government, based solely on the principle of the greatest good to the greatest number.

How many men there are in the towns and in the cities today, heads of families, who are barely eking out existence. Given the opportunity, as the propositions mentioned in the foregoing, how many of them could make good? At any rate many of them would be glad to exchange places with the farmer, who at least is not surfeited with the coin of the realm, really leads the most independent life and further health and its accompanying happiness. The pure ozone, a promoter of health and its accompanying happiness.

THE GREAT WHITE WAY.

Comment and in instances, criticism has been heard against the apparent selfishness on the part of the Power Company to permit the use of the great white way.

Way system; but, as announced in the news columns of the Mail, the fault lies not with the company, but other sources are responsible. As a matter of fact, like all good things, the White Way system may be abused, but in general with instances of like character, it will be all the more appreciated when it does function. People should be reasonable, conscious that the borough council, in its dealings with the West Penn folk, is doing all it can to make in the near future, both Fallowfield and McKean avenue shine as "brightly and benignly as does the morning star."

And we believe the power company is anxious also for the happy consummation.

UP-TO-DATE.

How did you like my sermon Sunday? asks the modern clergyman. I couldn't get you, replies the radio churchgoer. Too much theology? asks the minister. No, replies the radio lost sheep, too much interference.

Louisville Paper Tells About Harry Fay's Fight When He K. Od. McGown

Charlottesville has gained world-wide celebrity, or at least national-wide renown, account of the sterling young men who have and are making for themselves enviable names in the fist-battle arena.

The majority of them are in the public gaze, in the sportsman's platform yesterday in the presence of some scattered voters. Jeffy Hill Top Athletic club, an organization sponsored and contains within two or three instances and the little victory over the candidates from Boston. The score was 3 to 0.

On Monday evening, August 18, Mr. Fay met and defeated at Louisville, Ky., Billy McGown, the Atlanta, Ga., 164-pounder, who has fought Young Striding three times, but was never knocked by the Macon school-boy, a stunt performed with celebrity by Fay at their Louisville meeting on the date named. This contest, won by Fay, probably raised him to the highest esteem as a fighter in which he has ever been held, notwithstanding his career of successes in the squared circle.

Under date of August 19, in a letter sent to us from Fay's manager, Charles J. Jones, Mr. Jones says that he has matched Fay to box Billy Britton at Columbus, O., on next Monday evening, August 25.

In looking over the comment of the sports editors of the Louisville Times, we noted that Fay, in his great victory, was tied with glory and brings further renown, not only for himself, but to his family, Charlottesville and the athletic club of the borough of which he is a member. In his report of the fight Pete Johnson, sporting editor of the Times says:

"It was a good fight while it lasted and it lasted just long enough. Harry Fay, local boxer, gave Billy McGown, Atlanta 164-pounder, a knockout in the seventh round of their scheduled twelve-round main event at the Broadway Bowl last night just before McGown took the count for the last time he resembled an 180-pound portland cement block."

After the first round in the Fay-McGown fight it was just a matter of time.

Tot Wilkinson reviewed his old grammar school arithmetic during this fight. He took less so in addition. Nine times he gave McGown the count of nine before the Southern finally took the final count of ten.

"The fight was thoroughly enjoyable. The one that seemed to enjoy it most was McGown. He was immensely amused from the time he entered the ring until he heard 'ten.' Even though his face was battered to a hamburger pulp, he smiled, that same smile that he had on his face when he went into the ring."

"He gave a display of courage and nerve when he continued after taking the count of nine, twice in the third round. In that frame Fay opened a hole above his left eye. It was hard to tell whether Fay hit with a right or with an axe."

"Time and again McGown went down but would always respond to the cheering of the crowd. Making strenuous efforts to gain his feet he would dodge into a clinch and then battle until the kindly bell sounded."

"In the first round, Fay opened with an uppercut that landed lightly on the chin. From that time on the fight was all his. He slashed with a right that was terrible."

The second round was carried by Fay easily. In the third frame he took the aggressive even more. "In the fourth McGown took the count of nine. This appeared to be the last time he would go down. He came back and for the remainder of the round put up his best fight. The end of the fifth found the victim very weak. He could still ready for bed, but no bed was at hand."

BUCCOS TRIUMPH OVER THE BRAVES—COOPER HAS A GREAT DAY

Wilbur Cooper kept cool with Coolidge and the Pirates kept moving with Shanahan to put over the Pirates in the public gaze, in the sportsman's platform yesterday in the presence of some scattered voters. Jeffy Hill Top Athletic club, an organization sponsored and contains within two or three instances and the little victory over the candidates from Boston. The score was 3 to 0.

Cooper turned in his seventh success of the season under remarkable circumstances. With Lee Meadows unable to do his regular trick on Fogarty, Knoll, the veteran pitcher, was called upon to do the pitching. He was ready even if he had enjoyed only a scant two days' rest. There are a lot of stronger fellows who would have pitched three days, but Cooper showed he has the stuff to back up his hitting, the Braves getting only three hits.

The dope relating to the prowess of right-hand latters against left-hand twinning was shot up like a shell for the second time in two days. Earl Yde faced nine of the right-hand clubbers in the nightcap of the previous afternoon without allowing a run. Cooper made 11 outs against this sort of offensive. That is worth mentioning, at least. On a cool day a fellow could write a column about it.

Owner of "Pearl" Took Long Chance, but Won

An important connoisseur recently found in Paris, after a great deal of searching, an immense black pearl, a glorious thing with pink and purple lights in its dusky depths. He brought it to this country and took it to a widely known jeweler to have it set. A few days later the head of the firm sent for him.

"Mr. Z," he said after they were seated in the comfortable little office, "I'm afraid I've got something very disagreeable to tell you. I believe your black pearl is an imitation."

"Why," laughed Mr. Z, "that's impossible! I paid $100,000 for it at your own Paris house."

"Nevertheless," said the jeweler, "I do not think it is genuine. And there's just one way to find out—it seems to be such a perfect thing. If you are a very good sport you will let us crack it open. If it is the imitation we believe it to be, we will assume the responsibility for our Paris house and replace it. It is as real—well, you see, it's a slight pause."

"Crack away," decided Mr. Z, after a slight pause. The pearl was imitation.—Katherine Sproule and Jane Grant in the Saturday Evening Post.

Here is the Secret of Oakland Success

Coupe for Four

Since the first True Blue Oakland saw the light of a salesroom, a little less than a year ago, more than forty thousand have been delivered and have made good on every road in America.

Back of the True Blue Oakland were years and years of six-cylinder experience.

And back of it also were instructions to design the best medium weight six that ever nosed its radiator into traffic.

No ordinary six would do—plenty of them already!

Advanced, unhampered, engineering thought produced a car that leaped to leadership!

A year in advance of its field a year ago—refinements have been added from time to time to keep it so.

The True Blue Oakland fulfills the Oakland determination to build one of the world's very finest motor cars.

If you intend to spend around a thousand dollars—see and drive the Oakland before you decide.

BOAT DIRECTING SEARCH FOR MISSING AIRMAN

On Board the U. S. S. Richmond, August 23.—Just 130 miles from Greenland, at the spot where the destroyer Barry, last saw Lieutenant Locatelli, the Italian flier, at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, the U. S. S. Richmond took up its station today to direct the search for the missing airman.

The heavy fog, into which Lieutenant Locatelli plunged from eight two days ago was still enveloping the sea waste early this morning. No word had come that Locatelli had been found, and Admiral Magruder was waiting only for the mists to lift before putting out the Richmond's airplanes to begin a search.

In one instance several young women, office assistants, collapsed while at work. They were taken to a hospital in taxicabs. In another a Negro porter and a soda dispenser were stricken after they had split one éclair between them.

According to their plans, they will arrive in the North just about time for the babe to cut his teeth on a piece of grizzly bear hide or mountain cow steak. Each night the tiny motor boat will be beached and the goat permitted to forage while the family enjoys sleep in a tent.

about the outer covering proved to be vents for the odor.

They opened the box and found Graff's body jammed into four feet of space. Both legs had been hacked off at the knees and a short length of sash cord had been wrapped around the neck four times.

In hiding the body the murderer had placed it in the vault, which has the appearance of a large paint tank, doesn't seem so snappy. It seems to with a blanket over it. Over the top of the box the murderer had placed probably is the cause. Most times it is a thick coat of plaster of Paris and then a thin layer of shellac or tar.

Two hatchets and a saw, bearing what the police say are bloodstains, were found near the box.

THE Q. R. S. KLEERNOTE SUCTION PUMP

Will protect your Player from the summer dust, besides making it easier to pedal and producing better music.

A Child Can Operate It.

Dear Patrons: Sometimes you have trouble with your Player Piano that is no fault of anyone except just conditions. Don't you?

A note fails to speak. The player doesn't seem so snappy. It seems to pump a little harder than usual. Dust of the box the murderer had placed probably is the cause. Most times it is a thick coat of plaster of Paris and then a thin layer of shellac or tar.

We can't eliminate dust—that's why a Vacuum Cleaner is so useful in your home. But we can remove it. The Kleernote Vacuum Pump is as valuable in preserving your instrument as the Vacuum Cleaner is in preserving your carpets and rugs.

You will get much added pleasure from your Player Piano if you will clean it out once in a while.

Don't expect the best results if you neglect it and let it get all choked up with dust. No one can keep it out, but can take it out with a Kleernote Vacuum Pump in five minutes time.

The little investment of $3.00 will pay for itself many times over in a year. Let us show you one, it's worth while.

We would be pleased to have you call and look over our line of Player Pianos on display in our Piano Department.

Yours very truly,

Mount Athos' Famous Monastery Destroyed

The famous monastery of Chilandari, on Mount Athos, built in the Middle Ages, has been destroyed by fire. Mount Athos, the "Holy Mountain," gives its name to the northernmost of these peninsulas which extend like a three-pronged fork from Greece into the Aegean sea. It contains several monasteries and hermitages standing amid magnificent scenery. Access to some of the monasteries overlooking the sea is so difficult that visitors have been drawn up in a sack-shaped contrivance operated by rope. Chilandari monastery is famous for a most valuable MS. of the Gospels in gold letters on white vellum, probably given by the Emperor Andronicus Comnenus about 1184, and a treasure chest containing valuable specimens of Serbian ecclesiastical art. In 1918 Chilandari was raided by Bulgarian monks from the neighboring monastery of Zographou.

190 YEARS SERVICE FOR R. R. COMPANY

Five brothers, members of a Lancaster County, Pa., family, all employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, claim to represent the longest period of combined service, for one generation, of any railroad family in the United States. They have altogether worked for the Railroad a total of just 190 years.

The facts were brought out when the five men recently compared notes at a gathering in the home of one of their number. David A. Robinson, of Lancaster, who is Assistant Yardmaster at the Dillerville Scales, in that city, and who has been with the Pennsylvania Railroad 41 years and 3 months.

The brothers, in addition to "Dave," are William S. Robinson, of Harrisburg, Passenger Engineer, turning between that point and Manhattan, Transfer on the Cincinnati Limited, his service totalling 44 years, 9 months; James K. Robinson, Operator at "RJ" tower, Rockville, Pa., representing 41 years; Rathmel R. Robinson, Assistant Chief Operator, Telegraph Department, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, with 24 years, 6 months; and Milton T. Robinson, Freight Conductor, of Harrisburg, with 27 years, 6 months.

In addition, the father of the five brothers, David T. Robinson, was employed for several years in the Signal Department. All the boys were born in Mountville, Lancaster county, Pa., in a house one square away from the railroad station.

President Kea, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in a letter of congratulation upon the remarkable record of the five brothers said:

"The greatest asset of the Pennsylvania Railroad is, and always has been, the fidelity and intelligent devotion of the men working for it in all capacities. No other railroad has so large a number of men among its employees and officers who have made, and are making, its service their life work; nor, I believe, is it possible to name any other railroad system, or indeed great business enterprise of any character, in which so large a proportion of the employees remain continuously in the service from youth to the retiring age. Our employment statistics show that we have more than 40,000 men on the Pennsylvania Railroad entitled to be called veterans by reason of twenty years or more of service, while the records of the Pension department indicate that the average length of service upon reaching the retiring age is approximately forty years.

"The records of the five Robinson brothers afford a splendid illustration of our company's tradition of lifelong service, and it is a pleasure to express my own personal appreciation, and that of our management for their magnificent standing as a family of Pennsylvania Railroad veterans."
